

Training With The Star Thrower Story

The Star Thrower Story by Joel Barker is sure to motivate and influence all audiences. This short film is easy to use and quickly relays the important message of being a participant in the world.

It is about:

Making a Difference

Taking Action

Participating in the World

Building a Vision

Having a Positive Point of View

Choosing Your Perspective

Uses:

MEETING OPENER

The Star Thrower Story can be used to open any meeting or conference. Whatever your meeting is about, this program will help participants start thinking about what they can do to make a positive difference.

MEETING CLOSER

The Star Thrower Story can serve as a call to action and successfully be used to close any meeting or session. Use the training guide or the PowerPoint™ to ensure that viewers remember what they see.

TRAINING SESSION

Another option is to use The Star Thrower Story as its own half-hour or hour training session. Show the short program to your group and thoroughly go through the training guide, asking them questions along the way. You can also show the PowerPoint™ presentation to conclude the session.

PURCHASE

Sale copies of The Star Thrower Story are available in DVD and VHS. Additionally, when you purchase The Star Thrower Story, you have unlimited access to the support materials online at www.starthrowerstory.com. Simply log in and easily use the Training Guide, Self Study Guide, Transcript, and PowerPoint™ Presentation.